

Gio is not only a great athlete, but he is also a hard-working student in the classroom. Gio is very organized and keep track of his assignments and deadlines. I always get good reports about his behavior and never have had a problem. He is also respectful to his teachers and classmates, always listening and participating in class. Gio is very dedicated to getting his work done and puts his schoolwork first.

Casey Durkiewicz

World History Teacher