

To whom it may concern,

Brayden Bennett is a 2025 RHP/INF/OF with plenty of projection remaining. Brayden is a good student and is very coachable. Brayden works well in practice and is dedicated to the process of getting better.

Clint Toth
Head Coach
Arrowhead Christian Academy

Brayden Bennett possesses the tools and athleticism to play college ball when the chapter is presented to him. He is projectable and determined. What will separate Brayden from other players is the relentlessness in his work and his unwavering mental approach when it comes to making adjustments, preparing to be successful and learning from mistakes to continuously strive to be the best he can be.

Ryan McCarvel
Assistant Coach
Arrowhead Christian Academy

Brayden is a mouth closed ears open person. Brayden pays attention to what is being taught and applies it. Brayden learns from his mistakes to become a better baseball player and person. Along with field practice, Brayden is taking private pitching and hitting lessons. He shows up on time and works hard to better himself. Brayden also excels in the classroom balancing his athletics and academics.

Chad Zerbe
Pitching Coach