

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter regarding a young man I have had the pleasure of coaching for the past 4-years. His name is Thomas Mclaughlin, a senior graduating from Bradshaw Mountain High School in Prescott, Arizona in May.

My name is Dave Zall and I have been doing individual coaching with baseball players for over 40 years. I have been successful in coaching pitchers who have had great college and professional careers. I have worked with Curt Schilling and Jeff & Jared Weaver to name a few.

I believe Thomas Mclaughlin would be a great find for any community college. He is a big right-handed pitcher throwing about 85mph. He is 6'3" and weighs a solid 210lbs. with lots of talent. This past season was going to be his big year but had a small arm problem that limited him. He had 3 wins 0 losses with 23K's in 15 innings of work. I believe he can really help a program with his suburb ability.

Thomas has terrific work habits and is a total team player that gives his all at practices and games. He is someone that will complement any program. A coaches delight.

Thomas comes from a wonderful and supportive family, and they always support the baseball program with which he is involved in.

I feel with his physical attributes and his willingness to do whatever it takes to get to the next level he will be a great fit for your program.

I think with his arm ready to go again, he can reach around 90mph on the mound, and be a powerful addition to your program. He is the real diamond in the rough.

Thanks for your consideration.

Dave Zall
