Dear Coaches,

It is my distinct privilege to write a letter of recommendation for Mason Saint Hilarie, as he is truly a diamond in the rough. I met Mason when he was nine years old as a little league player and quickly invited him to join my club team in 2014. Over the years, he has played in various positions such as third and middle infielder, with soft hands, good range, and good footwork. However, he has also emerged as a strong outfielder.

Mason has developed into a center or right fielder with a strong arm who is an overall great defensive player. He can throw straight to third or home plate to get the out with ease. He has a 91mph OF velo and can run a 6.9 sec 60-yard dash.

In addition, he is a selective left-handed hitter who can hit off both sides of the plate. Mason knows how to read the ball giving him the ability to distinguish between strikes or balls, even on close pitches. He is a powerful hitter with a 95mph exit velo, hitting to the opposite side and even over the fence.

Mason is one of the most coachable, tenacious, dedicated and versatile players I have ever worked with. One of the biggest reasons is because of his great attitude. He never complains, works incredibly hard, and just gets out there and gets the job done.

I think for the purpose of the recommendation it is important to acknowledge that Mason is an incredible student athlete who would make a great fit to any competitive college baseball program. He is just an overall great kid and someone who deserves a chance to play at the next level.

Please feel free to call or email with any questions and/or if you would like more information about Mason.

Sincerely,

Alex Londoño
