To Whom It May Concern,

It is an honor to write this letter about a young man named Charlie Kimball. I've been very fortunate, not only to have coached Charlie the past 2 years, but to have had him in our baseball program and to have gotten to know him as a person.

Charlie is a hard working young man. He has excelled on the baseball field, as well as the classroom. He is very versatile, having played several different positions. He's always done whatever has been asked of him, for the betterment of his team.

I have no doubt Charlie will be successful, both in his academic and his athletic endeavors in college, as well as whatever he chooses to do beyond college.

If you need more information from me about Charlie, or wish to talk directly to me, it would be my pleasure to do so.

Sincerely,

Jeff Gahan
