

To whom it may concern,

I've known Cole Gomez for about 7 years, as he and my son have been friends since middle school. It's been a lot of fun watching him grow into the young man he is today. I've been lucky enough to witness Cole on and off the field and I'm always impressed with his maturity and his communication skills. His upbeat/positive attitude is infectious to his peers around him not to mention his coaches, teachers and parents which he interacts with. I have also noticed that Cole is very coachable, which in my opinion is very important for a young student athlete. I'm extremely excited to see what the future holds for this young man.
