

Gabe Arias:

Gabe is an outstanding kid overall. His character is the type every coach wants on their team. He may not be the loudest player on the field but will always be one of the hardest working and most attentive. He's a learner. In every aspect of life. With a great left handed swing, ability to track the ball down in the gap, and an arm that is continually getting stronger, gabe is already a good player. As he continues to develop his body and get more and more explosive, he has a chance to become a great player!

- curt Nelson