

As Logan's 9 grade Humane Letters Teacher and College Counselor, Logan Middendorf demonstrates maturity beyond his peers, a dedication to hard work, and willingness to tackle difficult tasks. Logan is the type of student who is always prepared for class and offers insightful insights and connections. Several times, he chose to write papers with challenging thesis statements putting forth extra effort to make a solid defense. He elevates the culture within the classroom by providing leadership in these areas for his peers.

Renae Smith, Glendale Prep H.S. Teacher