

Logan has always exceeded expectations, even when the bar you establish for him is already so very high. As a student (and athlete) he leads by example, but he has always paid attention to the small details that are necessary for success. With a natural leadership style he has been so helpful in my classroom over the past four years, being quite assertive yet respectful at the same time, an unusual yet welcome combination in a young man.

Patrick Tierney, Glendale Prep H.S. Teacher