To Whom It May Concern:

The first three words that come to mind when I think about Will Lindberg are confidence, ability, and drive. As a student in my Honors English class Will was an exceptional learner and carried with him a zeal for his education, clearly enjoying the process of school as a student, and as a citizen of the classroom. Will is friendly and outgoing and makes people feel good about living life and enjoying the moment. His personality is effusive which makes him a lot of fun to be around. Will is driven and accepts nothing less than excellent grades from himself. He is an athlete and a scholar and a gentleman. I know Will has big dreams for his life and I have little doubt that he will accomplish them. With his eyes on the ball and confidence in his heart the future looks very bright for Will Lindberg.

Please feel free to call me if you have any other questions about this terrific young man.

Sincerely,
