

To Whom This May Concern,

I have worked with Ryan Rooney for the last year and a half both personally and as an athlete I have coached. His work ethic is second to none. He has the ability to focus on getting the task at hand accomplished and not letting distractions get in the way, whether that be finishing a workout in the weight room or on the baseball diamond or helping me facilitate a summer youth strength and conditioning program. I have been impressed with how he encourages his teammates and helps everyone around him elevate their game because of the level of effort he puts in himself and how he holds his teammates accountable to do what is expected. I am happy to know this young man and I am excited to see what his future holds as he keeps putting in his best efforts!
