

Colton Planeta

Colton consistently demonstrates leadership traits and skills far beyond his age. He is seen as a leader amongst his peers and comfortably embraces the role both on and off the field. He has high expectations for both his personal performance and that of the team and does not shy away from challenging himself and his teammates to perform at high levels. His hard work off the field and at practices translates to consistent performance in game situations. He shows poise and confidence in his approach to the game, has a high baseball IQ and is extremely coachable . . . easily understanding and applying learned skills to improve performance. Colton is a reliable, high character teammate that elevates the play of those around him with his positive, get-after-it personality and attitude.
