

When I think about Ryan Iveson, I think of a dedicated and mature athlete who consistently demonstrates strong leadership skills on and off the field. His dedication to the sport is evident in his rigorous training regimen and commitment to improve. He is also a team first guy, who prioritizes the success of the team above his own personal gain and is a skilled communicator with a unique ability to mobilize those around him toward a common goal.

Geri Campeau

Assistant Principal and Head Athletic Director

Mater Dei High School

2015 to 2021