Throughout my two years coaching Ashton, he has grown as a ball player and young man. This time has been nothing short of a pleasure coaching Ashton, as he is very receptive to instruction. His development in maturity and work ethic is such that his younger peers look up to him as a model. His continued dedication to his craft will undoubtedly lead to success at the next level of baseball. Anthony Chapman Sierra Vista High School Junior Varsity Assistant Coach