To whom it may concern

My name is Rudy Arce. I am Mark S. McAllister's youth Pastor and I have known Mark since he was in the sixth grade.

Mark is a very respectful young man who pays close attention to what he is being taught. This young man has strong values and can be trusted with doing the right thing at all times. Mark is loved and supported by both his parents. He has a strong family forefront that has taught him the value of leadership, integrity, honor, loyalty, and discipline.

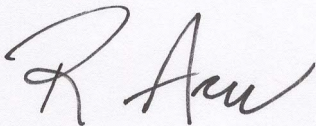

Mark's priority always lies on his academics and athletics demands. At school he maintains good grades and never gets in trouble. He cares for other students and is helpful to others.

As an athlete, baseball comes first. He maintains a vigorous training schedule for pitching, batting, and strength training. He never says he is too tired, but instead makes sure he is prepared for the day.

Lastly, Mark makes sure he still makes time for his family and is always laughing, helping his parents, kind and peaceful.
