To Whom It May Concern:

Having been Cole's varsity baseball coach for two seasons and also having taught him in precalculus as a sophomore, I can attest to the work ethic and character of Cole on and off the field. On the field, what stands out is his willingness to play any position to help his team; last season, he moved from shortstop to catcher because of circumstances pertaining to the original catcher. In class, he never complains, even when faced with great challenges. Cole works hard in classes and in baseball - he earned a 4.0 last season in one of the most challenging high schools in the country. On the field, Cole works hard on his technique and is working on strengthening his body. He can play any position on the field. Overall Cole's character and work ethic are both very high level on and off the field. If you have any further questions, you can call or text me at 702 277 2356.
