To Whom It May Concern,

I'm writing to offer my endorsement of Carter Reitz, a dedicated athlete who has been an integral part of our Fellowship of Christian Athletes Baseball Program.

Carter consistently demonstrates an intense drive to compete. His warrior spirit, paired with a steady work ethic, makes him a valued team member who understands the importance of both individual effort and team collaboration. While he practices and plays with intensity, it's his commitment to improvement that truly stands out. Whether in the gym or on the field, Carter gives his best, always seeking to elevate his game.

Beyond his skills on the field, Carter's demeanor and attitude deserve special mention. He approaches every challenge with maturity and is both respectful and coachable. He has a way of positively influencing his peers, leading by example, and showing resilience even in challenging situations.

In summary, I believe Carter Reitz will be a solid addition to the right college baseball program. Carter's current skills combined with his work ethic and determination make him an athlete worthy of consideration. I am confident he will continue to grow and contribute positively to any team he joins.

Should you require any further information or insights about Carter, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Best regards,
