To Whom It May Concern:

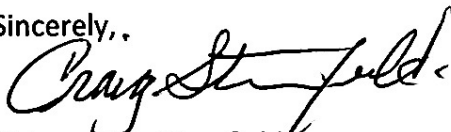

I was asked to write a letter of recommendation for Judd Taylor. My relationship with Judd is neighbor, friend and ecclesiastical leader.

I have known Judd since he was born. As I have watched as he grew up, I have always been impressed with this young man. Judd has always been one of the friendliest, most personable young men that I know. He has always been willing to help whenever asked and is a leader amongst his peers.

Perhaps the most important and impressive character trait that Judd has, is his work ethic. Judd is not a stranger to hard work. His work ethic has paid off in many ways but is also evident when he plays sports. He puts one hundred percent effort into anything he does.

I highly recommend this young man for any opportunities that may be available to him. I would be happy to answer any questions you may have about Judd.

Sincerely,

Bishop Craig Stansfield
