

Manny Bracamonte epitomizes excellence on and off the field as a standout catcher for our Cienega High School baseball team. A resilient leader with an unwavering dedication to the game, Manny's defensive prowess behind the plate is matched only by his ability to command the game strategy. His keen insight into opposing hitters and his adeptness in calling pitches showcase his invaluable contribution to our team's success. As a senior, Manny's commitment, work ethic, and natural talent make him an inspiring role model for our younger players, shaping the future of our program.

-Kelly Johnson