

As a baseball player, Manny Bracamonte holds value further than what the stats show. He has been a backbone for our Champs baseball team in the catcher position, as he is a hard worker and does everything in his power to give the team a win. He is a leader with his competitive nature that rubs off on the rest of the team. He takes a very mature approach to multiple aspects of the game including catching, hitting, and baserunning.

-Eric Leon