

To whom it may concern,

Ryder Wilson is a natural leader with a hard work ethic. Always on time to practice and a dedication to baseball that had him driving one and a half hours to and from practice. Ryder is able to have fun as well as guide younger players to be as successful or better than himself. Ryder has been a great young man to have on the team.

Sincerely,

Jake Rees