

To whom it may concern,

My name is Bryce Holmes and I am writing this in regards to Ethan Allen attending college. I am his high school assistant baseball coach and I am here to attest that his work ethic and leadership skills are some that in my opinion any coach needs to add to the success of their program. Ethan has earned the respect of his teammates, classmates, teachers, and coaches as someone that is dependable, upstanding, and without a doubt a leader amongst his peers. I have only been with Ethan for a short amount of time but in that time I have watched him day in and day out show up and exceed any expectation us coaches have for him. Ethan is a coachable, respectful, and head down get the work done kind of student-athlete that every coach dreams of having on their roster.

In my humble opinion, Ethan makes for a great asset at any college in the country that he is capable of playing at.
