

It is very difficult for me to describe Kailer Holt as a player and an individual in three to four lines. His enthusiasm, dedication and commitment to playing the game of baseball the right way I have seen only a few times in 25 years of coaching varsity level baseball. Kai is a solid student with high moral values. Kai mentors our younger players preparing them for the next level of play. Kai might be short of stature but he has a heart of a giant and I would highly recommend him to any program.
