To whom it may concern:

I am writing on behalf of Curtis (Justus) Martin who has applied to your Baseball program. Justus is an exceptional young man that I have had the pleasure to teach in the 11th Literature course at Milton. I can attest to his intelligence, leadership qualities, and respectful demeanor.

Justus is a quiet, dedicated student who strives for excellence in everything he does. He is always ready to engage in productive conversations about almost any topic where his knowledge base is stellar. He is articulate, mature, and well-rounded which attributes to his ability to engage in almost any discussion about any topic with ease. His level of intellect avails him the opportunity to share his knowledge and skills confidently with others while being ever so humble.

Mr. Martin is a model student with a kind heart and sensitivity toward his peers. In my class, Justus is always quick to team up with students who struggle to help them. While he guided others through difficult tasks, he also made sure his own work was presented with the utmost quality. He is diligent, perceptive, and organized.

Thus, it is with great pleasure that I recommend this determined, kind, and gifted young man, Curtis (Justus) Martin as an exceptional candidate for your Baseball program.

Kindest regards,
