

I had the pleasure of coaching Luke this past summer. He was a great teammate, relentless competitor, and a tireless learner. The standard was met every time he touched the rubber. The awesome thing about his future is that his best baseball is still in front of him. With further commitment to the weight room and training, the sky is the limit for this kid. Great kid, great student, a great teammate, Luke has the characteristics to be great.

Ryan Schmidt
316 Diamond Kings-Baty assistant coach