

For Chase Taylor

To whom it may concern

His 6 foot frame and athleticism with a very good baseball IQ. Translates well in the batters box he gets on plane early and has great bat speed and bat to ball skill that will one day produce for power. He works extremely hard daily from the classroom to the field and the gym he's dedicated to becoming a college baseball player. He is a mature kid for his age he handles the game well plays hard and aggressive while having a slow heart beat in the big moments.
