

To Whom It May Concern:

Having Aidan McKendry as a student in my American History class is a true pleasure. He comes to class each day with a positive attitude and ready to work. He is always respectful not only towards me as a teacher, but to his peers as well. He would do anything to help anyone, always willing to lend a hand if I ask him. He works exceptionally well with others, contributing in group discussions and collaborative projects with classmates. He is always looking for a way to go the extra mile in class. Overall, Aidan is a tremendous asset to our classroom culture, and I always look forward to talking with him.
