To Whom it May Concern:

I have been asked to submit a recommendation letter on behalf of Asher Hattig. I have known Asher for approximately two years and have acted in the capacity of a baseball coach and friend.

During my time with Asher, he has distinguished himself as one of our best assets, with his high level of integrity, work-ethics, teammate support, and character, he has established himself as a pristine example of a dedicated student athlete with his ability to lead by example, both on and off the baseball diamond.

Asher is one of the most focused players I have ever worked with and is dedicated to persistent analysis of his mechanics to hone his craft. Anyone who has ever witnessed Asher making a diving catch can surely attest to the sheer artistry of his athleticism. This artistry is a result of years of sweat, determination, and effort.

Asher applies the same effort of and approach to his academics as he does to athletics. His academic effort is as impressive as his athletic achievements. Asher's ability to excel in both the classroom and the baseball diamond is a testament to his dedication toward greatness and a desire to succeed in everything he does. Asher combines above average intellectual capabilities with strong motivation and a kindhearted personality. This collection of skills and personality are absolutely inspiring, and I am blessed to have him as a part of my life.

If you would like any additional information regarding my thoughts on Asher and his abilities, please feel free to contact me directly.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this character reference for a student who consistently demonstrates what it means to be a hard worker. Asher Hattig has been a student of mine for 2 years. He approaches every responsibility with focus and determination, always striving to complete his work thoroughly and on time. His communication style is both efficient and respectful, making him easy to collaborate with and dependable in any team setting. He speaks with clarity and listens attentively. He possesses a solid character marked by integrity and a strong moral compass. Though he may not seek the spotlight, he is a quiet leader who sets the tone through his actions. He brings a playful sense of humor and a natural joking manner that lifts the spirits of those around him. I am blessed to know him and appreciate him as a student.

Respectfully,

Rachel Isler
