

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to recommend Dennis Carey for scholarship consideration and collegiate baseball recruitment. I have had the privilege of knowing Dennis since he was nine years old and coached him throughout his youth baseball years until he was 15. As a high school baseball coach with many years in the game, I have had the opportunity to work with a large number of players, and Dennis has always stood out for the right reasons.

Dennis has consistently been one of the hardest working players on the field. From a young age he demonstrated a strong commitment to improving his game and approached practices and games with a coachable attitude. He has always been eager to learn, quick to apply instruction, and dependable when his team needed him.

One of Dennis's biggest strengths is his baseball IQ. He understands the game at a high level and plays with awareness, instincts, and confidence. Offensively, he has always been a very good hitter with a disciplined approach at the plate. Defensively, he brings tremendous value because of his versatility. Dennis has the ability to play multiple positions and contribute wherever he is needed. He has proven himself to be both a strong outfielder and a reliable infielder, making him a true utility player who can impact the game in many ways.

Beyond his ability on the field, Dennis is the type of player coaches appreciate because of his work ethic, attitude, and team-first mindset. He has consistently shown the kind of character and dedication that translates well to the next level.

I strongly recommend Dennis Carey for scholarship opportunities and collegiate baseball programs. I believe he will be a valuable addition to any team and will represent his program well both on and off the field.

Sincerely,

Jeremy Neville
