Letter of Recommendation for Crash Davis

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my privilege to recommend Crash Davis, whom I had the opportunity to coach against during the Arizona state championship baseball game last season while serving as Head Baseball Coach at Wickenburg Christian Academy.

As someone who has coached and evaluated many talented athletes and competitors over the years, I can say without hesitation that Crash Davis stands out as one of the premier high school baseball players I have seen compete.

Crash was a tremendous shortstop with advanced defensive instincts, outstanding range, and exceptional athleticism. Offensively, he was a fantastic hitter who consistently impacted the game with both his bat and his approach at the plate. He also proved to be an elite base runner whose speed, instincts, and aggressiveness constantly pressured opposing defenses.

What impressed me most, however, was his competitiveness and overall presence on the field. Crash played the game with confidence, toughness, and composure in the biggest moments. Even in a state championship environment against top competition, he elevated his level of play and demonstrated the type of leadership and competitive drive that coaches value tremendously.

Beyond the physical tools, Crash carried himself like a true high-level competitor and teammate. He played the game the right way, competed with intensity, and represented his program with class.

I strongly believe Crash Davis has the athletic ability, baseball IQ, and competitive makeup to succeed at the next level, and I would confidently recommend him to any collegiate baseball program.

Please feel free to contact me if additional information is needed.

Sincerely,

Bradley Matney
