

MONTGOMERY BELL ACADEMY

September 21, 2020

I have had the pleasure of getting to know Will Tyrrell over the past few years as both his Middle School football coach and his High School advisor for the past few years. Will is an outstanding young man and a wonderful representation of the Montgomery Bell Academy ideal of Gentleman, Scholar, Athlete. He is thoughtful and polite, at ease with his peers as well as adults, and always has a smile on his face (even with a mask on). Will always tries to do things the right way, not the easy way.

Will has challenged himself in the classroom, already jumping into the school's AP curriculum in his sophomore year. He does consistently good work and has drawn praise from his teachers for his detailed preparation, consistent performance, and willingness to seek help when he has a question. Will is intellectually curious and engages in thoughtful discussions in class and in our advisory.

On the playing field, Will has both a high athletic IQ and a fiercely competitive spirit. He gets everything out of his ability and constantly works to improve. Will is very coachable and responds well to constructive criticism. Will leads by example and puts the team goals above individual achievements. I am looking forward to what the next two-plus years have in store for Will as a member of the MBA community, a student, and an athlete.

Sincerely,

Chris Smith
Associate Director of Communications
