

Ezra is a self-motivated individual who consistently out works his peers and sets the standard for his teammates to work towards. He has an outstanding clubhouse presence as he is not only a great teammate but an amazing human being. He is a strong competitor who leads by example and always finds a way to keep his teammates focused on the task at hand. He is committed to developing into the greatest version of himself and pushes himself daily to become the greatest asset he can be for his team and his family.
