

To Whom It May Concern,

It is my great pleasure to write this letter in support of Connor Brigger. I have known Connor for approximately ten years.

I instructed numerous classes with Connor, through the years, including robotic classes. He was unquestionably one of the most capable students in the class, and his work in the class consistently reflected a level of insightfulness and attention to detail that Connor excels at. This helped lead his robotics team to several awards. He stood out among his peers for his eagerness to engage in the process of learning and discovery. Simply put, Connor was a true pleasure to have in class.

In addition to his confidence and eagerness to learn, Connor also made a great impression on me due to his pleasant personality and hard work in our community. He always gets along famously with his classmates, teachers, and neighbors. I know that he will do the same at any establishment.

Based on my observation of his abilities, I strongly believe he has the potential to be outstanding in whatever life may bring him. Connor will be an asset to any organization. I can confidently recommend him for any position or undertaking that he chooses to pursue.

Sincerely yours,
