

Matt Brown - Teacher and Varsity Head Baseball Coach American Canyon High School
March 20, 2023

My name is Matt Brown and I have been a teacher and the head baseball coach at American Canyon High School for 12 years. My wife Tara is a high school volleyball coach and we have 3 sons - Dylan is the oldest. We have brought our boys up with the core values and standards that we as coaches expect from our respective players. (How can we expect behaviors from other people's kids if we can't expect them from our own?) Consequently, Dylan is a very hard worker, a dedicated and selfless teammate and has the even temperament that enables him to remain competitive through the peaks and valleys of a season. Although he has excelled at other sports growing up, Dylan has recently committed his time and energy to baseball. He is a sophomore who has earned the confidence and credibility of his Varsity teammates right away. Dylan only plays in the spring and summer and spends the rest of the year in the weightroom and cages. Education is important in our family and he has maintained very good grades. As a coach and father, I am very proud of the student-athlete that Dylan has become.
